UNIVERSITY OF GHANA

STUDY AT THE UNIVERSITY OF GHANA AND BENEFIT FROM OUR FOUNDATION ENGLISH PROGRAMME.

STUDY TOP-NOTCH DEGREE COURSES IN

Business
· Accounting
· Banking and Finance
· Insurance
· Marketing

Social Sciences
· Economics
· Political Science
· Psychology
· Sociology
· Bachelor of Laws (LLB)

Engineering
· Agricultural Engineering
· Biomedical Engineering
· Computer Engineering
· Food Process Engineering
· Material Science and Engineering

Health Care
· Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBChB)
· Dental Surgery (BDS)
· Nursing (General, or Specialized)
· Midwifery
· Doctor of Pharmacy (D-Pharm)

Physical Sciences
· Chemistry
· Computer Science
· Earth Science
· Mathematics
· Physics
· Biology

Foundation English Programme (FEP)

FEP is a unique pre-entry intensive English learning programme for a seamless degree study at UG, one of Africa's prestigious universities.

Structure of FEP

- English Proficiency Self-Assessment. Applicants to a degree programme to self-assess their English proficiency on the application portal as either
  - Pre-intermediate or
  - Intermediate.
- Diagnostic Test
  - Self-Assessed pre-intermediate students, no diagnostic test. Optional 8-weeks Basic English Programme (BEP)
  - Self-Assessed intermediate students, diagnostic test by the third or fourth week of June.
- Placements
  - Pre-intermediate students' study 1-year Certificate in English Proficiency programme (CEPP)
  - Intermediate students' study 8-weeks pre-enrolment Academic English programme (AEP)
- Progression
  - Pre-intermediate students shall proceed to their admitted degree programmes the next academic year upon passing of final exams on the CEPP.
  - Intermediate students shall proceed to their admitted degree programmes in the current academic year upon passing of final exams on the AEP.

NB: Students who fail the final exams on either CEPP or AEP must repeat the exams.

On-campus Accommodation

The International Programmes Office (IPO) facilitates on-campus accommodations for admitted international students on a first-come-first-served basis. Current residential preferences and fees can be accessed at https://ipo.ug.edu.gh/sites/ipo.ug.edu.gh/files/RESIDENTIAL_2021-2022.pdf. Students who desire to stay at our International Students' Hostel are mandated to send copies of their receipt of payments, both academic and hostel, to assip@ug.edu.gh for accommodation reservations to be made for them.

Airport Pickup

All admitted students who want to be picked up at the Airport upon arrival must send an email to assip@ug.edu.gh or WhatsApp to +233507485956 the following details: flight details, name, level, programme, and student ID number. This information must reach the Office one clear week before students arrive. Airport pickup is ONLY to campus.

Contact Information

International Programmes Office
P.O. Box LG 586, Legon
University of Ghana.

📞 🟢 +233 (0) 20 705 3680
+233 (0) 50 748 5956
+233 (0) 50 706 2290

Email: international@ug.edu.gh international@st.edu.gh

Social media handles:

📷 @uofggobal_

🐦 @UofGhanaGlobal

f International Programmes Office

APPLICATION

UG offers rolling admissions with no application deadline for undergraduate degree programmes. Application to a degree programme and FEP is the same for all non-Anglophone students.
To apply for a degree programme, you must:

- Have high school results [French Baccalaureate, WASSCE, A-Levels + O-Levels, IB, etc]
- Complete and submit an online application at https://apply.ug.edu.gh/admissions/iundergrad/login
- Be ready to take a diagnostic test at UG Language Centre if your English Proficiency self-assessment is at the intermediate level.

FEES

- Application processing fee - US$110.00
- Pre-intermediate one-year CEPP US$1,753.00
- Intermediate 8-weeks AEP - US$ 400.00
- Optional 8-weeks BEP - US$ 250.00

NB: Tuition fees for degree programmes depends on course of study. Approved schedule of fees can be found at https://ipo.ug.edu.gh/fees-schedule